

Houses in Ancient Egypt

By Gaia

Introduction

Egyptian houses

- How they were built
- What they looked like
- the royal furniture
- Differences between houses of rich and poor what did Egyptian houses look like?

- Egyptian houses generally very small
- made out of mud bricks
- windows were very small and high
- rectangular shaped
- Windows small high wind come in
- Roofs flat air come in What was the difference of rich and poor?

- Rich gardens pools
- Rich only had furniture
one of them was bed
- Poor slept mats danger
scorpions
- Rich ten rooms
- Rich floor tiled
- Poor floor beaten earth

How were houses built?

- Got mud got from Nile put in molds with straw mixed left dry
- Then put on top each other

Royal furniture

- People made furniture craftsman woodworkers
- Basic furniture two arm chairs bed frame bed canopy carrying chair two boxes used to contain mirrors

References

Websites

<http://www.dragonstrike.com/egypt/house.htm>

<http://www.reshafim.org.il/ad/egypt/timelines/topics/furniture.htm>

<http://www.historyforkids.org/learn/egypt/architecture/houses.htm>

<http://www.ancient-egypt-online.com/ancient-egypt-houses.html>