

Soldiers, Weapons and War

By Luca

Introduction

today I'm going to teach you some things about ancient Egyptian
soldiers, weapons and war:

Soldiers, weapons and war.

Hope you enjoy

Ancient Egypt Soldiers

- When Egypt conquered land they stole gold and jewels and all the good stuff they had.
- If in a battle there were problems it was often the soldiers that became the king

Ancient Egyptian Weapons

- chariots were really good weapons in war because they were ridden by horses so they could squash the soldiers.
- Shields were really good weapons in war because they could protect the soldiers.

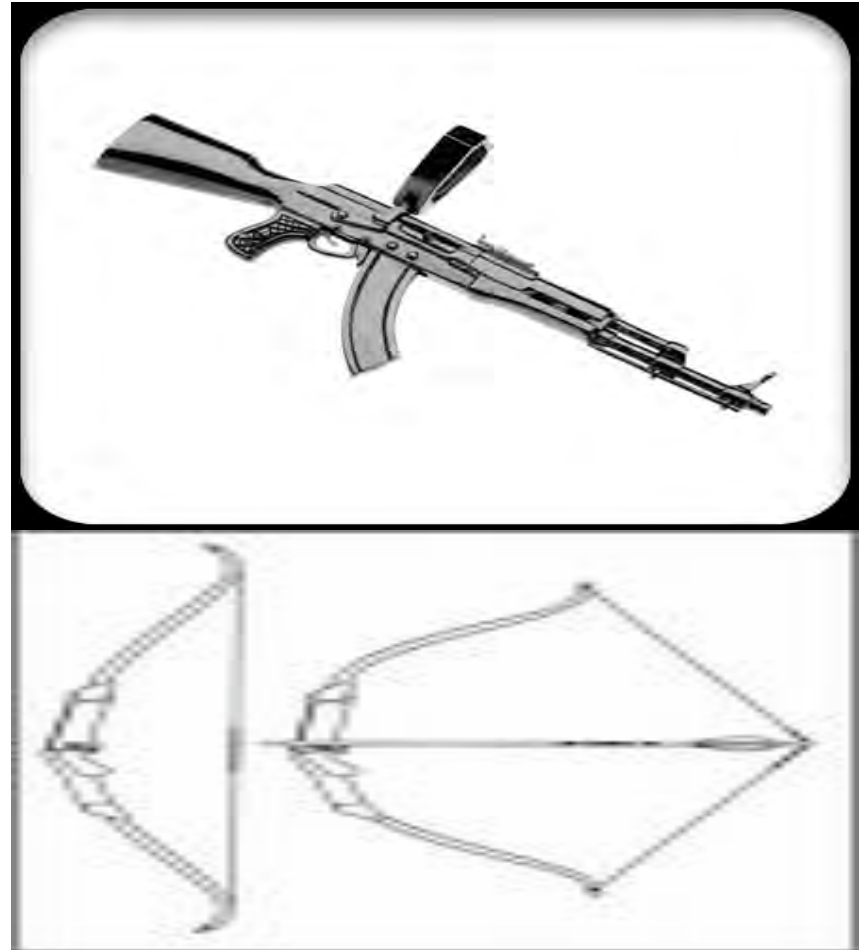

Ancient Egyptian War

- Egyptians conquered Nubba in 2500 B.C. And in Nubba there where lot's of minerals and gold.
- Egyptians got defeated by Assyrians in 1000 B.C. and the Egyptian civilization ended.

Weapons now and then

- Today they don't use anymore bows and arrows but they use machine guns or even grenades.
- Back then they did not have guns or grenades so they used bows and arrows that were a harder device to shoot people.
